To People Interested in providing access to high quality, comprehensive medical and health care services to medically indigent people in the state:

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission is accepting applications for membership on the Medical Care Advisory Committee. The committee advises the HHS executive commissioner and HHSC about the medical assistance program and immediate and long-range plans for providing access to high-quality, comprehensive medical and health care services to medically indigent people in the state. To ensure people who qualify receive services, the committee shall consider changes in the process HHSC uses to determine eligibility.

The HHS executive commissioner will appoint one member to the committee to serve a six-year term expiring Aug. 31, 2024. The committee will include key stakeholders as determined by the HHS executive commissioner.

Applicants must have experience with developing and maintaining a medical assistance program and in making immediate and long-range plans for reaching a program's goal of providing access to high quality, comprehensive medical and health care services to medically indigent people in Texas.

Applicants may fall into the following categories:

- People who receive Medicaid services or family members of a person who receives Medicaid services.
- Providers of medical, behavioral health or long-term services and supports.
- The general public.
- And other people, state agencies or groups with knowledge of and interest in the committee's field of work.

A committee member must regularly participate in committee meetings. Committee meetings will be in Austin at least quarterly or at the call of the presiding officer. Committee members are repaid for their travel to and from meetings if funds are available.

If you would like to serve on the Medical Care Advisory Committee, please complete and return the attached application no later than 11:59 p.m., Feb. 28.

HHSC will notify applicants if they have been selected to serve as a member of the committee.

HHSC will consider the applicants' qualifications, background and interest in serving on the advisory committee. HHSC also tries to choose committee members who, as a whole, represent the diversity of all Texans. For that reason, HHSC considers applicants' ethnicity, gender and geographic location.
